

Application for Special Circumstances

This application form is for homeowners to request a review of their special circumstances in relation to property categorisation and the associated support schemes.

Information about special circumstances and how they will be considered is available in the 'Guidance for Special Circumstances' document, which can be found in the Homeowner Handbook you have been given. This information is also available on the Auckland Council website (aucklandcouncil.govt.nz/review)

Please read the guidance, complete and return this form with supporting information to recoveryreview@aucklandcouncil.govt.nz. A decision on your application will be provided to you in writing within 25 working days.
