

Walk'nSplore Bingo

B	I	N	G	O
A solar-powered bench	Where the buses take a kerehunga (nap)	Four 9m totara pou whenua that tell the stories of Tāmaki Makaurau	The solar panels that light up the Harbour Bridge	Boat shed name synonymous with 'skill, craftsmanship and innovative boat design'
Take a stroll around the block	Visit the alley with the parking for bikes	Find the sign with a pedestrian and bicycle	Art installation covering the Harbour Lights battery system	Share a picture of Amey Daldy Park
A Red Rabbit	The plank that let's you know if 'This is another good day for planting food'		Place where the community garden grows	Spot the red bus
Find the Māori hīnaki (eel trap)	Stop and smell the flowers	Quench your thirst at the water fountain	A street sign with a 'J'	Spot a TRAM
Bus stop #1072	Laneway with the name that means to 'shine, glimmer and light the way'	What do bakers use to knead their dough?	Find Waikokota Lane	Find fresh ika (fish)

Go explore the neighbourhood. Get 'BINGO' vertically, horizontally or diagonally, email a photo of your completed board to walking@AT.govt.nz and be in to win one of our prize packs.